

Further Information for Youth Training Camp

1. Flying to Adelaide

You can fly to Adelaide by either Qantas, Jetstar or Virgin. If you have never travelled by plane with firearms, please ask Carrie for assistance – carrie@shootingaustralia.org

Try to arrive in Adelaide after 5pm – but talk to Carrie if this will be a problem.

Make sure you are aware of the requirements of the airline for travelling with firearms and ammunition. See the links below.

2. Driving to Adelaide

If you drive to Adelaide you can meet the group at the accommodation. We will have a mini-bus for daily transport to and from the accommodation and shooting range, so you will not need to drive when you get there.

If you live in Adelaide, please meet at the accommodation from 7pm.

3. Accommodation

We will be staying at Lincoln College, 45 Brougham Place, North Adelaide. This is in walking distance of the CBD of Adelaide, as well as the shopping and restaurant area of North Adelaide.

Lincoln College has a single rooms and shared, single sex bathrooms. There is a large common room for table tennis, a pool table and socialising. There are spaces outside for ball sports.

4. Meals

Cereal, toast and fruit will be available at Lincoln College in the accommodation area. You will be able to make your own breakfast. Lunch will be provided at the shooting range. Fruit will also be available at the range. These meals are included in the cost of the camp.

Dinner will be from 6.30pm each night in any of the local restaurants in the area. This is your own cost.
