

SEEKING EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST TO HOST A SHOOTING AUSTRALIA ENDORSED EVENT IN 2023

SHOOTING AUSTRALIA'S 2023 ENDORSED EVENT SERIES

Shooting Australia will endorse a number of domestic events during 2023 across the ISSF disciplines and encompassing Pistol, Rifle and Shotgun. Shooting Australia will partner with event hosts to deliver endorsed events. Endorsed events will collectively be referred to as the Shooting Australia Endorsed Event Series.

These endorsed events will be classified as:

Tier 1: Endorsed Events – Selection

Tier 2: Endorsed Events – Performance

WHAT WILL THE 2023 ENDORSED EVENT SERIES BE USED FOR?

Average Performance Score

An opportunity for Athletes to record a performance score that will go towards their Average Performance Score (APS).

National Team Selection

Some events within the Endorsed Event Series may form part of national team selection and in accordance with the selection criteria. These events will be clearly identified and classified as Tier 1 events.

Officials and Volunteers

An opportunity for:

- ISSF Licensed Officials to remain active in Officiating at domestic ISSF events;
- Volunteers and Officials to become active in ISSF Officiating;
- Officials to receiving mentoring and experience as part of Shooting Australia's ISSF Officiating Scholarship Program.

WHAT EVENTS CAN BE ENDORSED?

A Club or State Association (as the Event Host) may seek endorsement for:

- Club Competitions
- Grand Prix's
- State Titles
- Any other event an Event Hosts deems appropriate to seek endorsement

National Events that are delivered by the Member Organisations will receive automatic endorsement, provided they meet minimum standards. These National events include:

- Target Rifle Australia (TRA) ISSF Nationals
- Pistol Australia (PA) ISSF Nationals
- Australian Clay Target Association (ACTA) ISSF Nationals

MINIMUM EVENT DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS
